

Job Opportunity: Senior Mechanical Engineer – Coal Handling Plant

Responsibilities

- Manage, plan, supervise, coordinate and execute coal plant daily maintenance activities in a safe and efficient manner.
- Manage, plan and take lead in the required condition-based monitoring, preventive, predictive and corrective maintenance tasks.
- Troubleshoot critical failure of plant equipment and analyse its failure modes.
- Manage and coordinate related contracts and contractors.
- Planning for maintenance outages using effective time management principles.
- Ensure safe work environment, maintaining good housekeeping, formulate safety procedure and contribute to safety improvement in workplace by considering risk factors in maintenance and repair activities.
- Ensure compliance to codes, regulations and standards.
- Prepare the necessary analysis, reports and recommendations to the Maintenance Manager / Management concerning equipment/project status including incident reporting and root cause analysis.
- Develop and control the maintenance budget.
- Maintain a proper communication with the maintenance and operations teams.
- Training and mentoring junior staff.
- Stand prepared to serve as Acting Maintenance Superintendent during absence of the Maintenance Superintendent.